This Aged Care Facility is very good in all respects! When my wife had to go to hospital, after a 7 day stay I was informed by her doctor that she no longer could come home. I had to find a facility virtually immediately. Fortunately I had employed and paid for a aged care service provider that immediately found 4 vacancies of which Casa D'Amore was one. I viewed the proposed room which had a good view and immediately choose this facility. I have found the management, clinical care coordinator, event coordinators, nurses, carers and cleaning staff of an exceptional quality and very friendly..

I only have a glowing report for Casa D'Amore in Park Street, Coorparoo where my wife is a resident. Each review I rate at the highest service and quality.

My Aunt was accepted into the Casa D'Amore facility in December 2017. We had the opportunity to inspect and consider many other aged care facilities and this one stands head and shoulders above anything we have seen on the Southside of Brisbane. It is not your typical nursing home model. It is fully air-conditioned, modern appearance and design over 4 levels including basement car parking and has some great facilities in the hair salon and coffee shop and lots of break out areas to enjoy your time with your loved ones. The staff are very friendly, courteous and caring towards the residents and willing to work with each families' personal requests. The food offered each day is freshly prepared onsite by the kitchen staff and is of a very high standard that I would enjoy eating myself. Each of our family takes it in turn to visit my Aunt and when we go during lunch or dinner we like to feed her ourselves and the staff are always very accommodating and helpful. I have had a lot of experience over the years with other relatives in various nursing homes and whilst the care provided can never be the same to what you might receive at home, Casa D'Amore certainly tries very hard to get it close. I can say on behalf of my Aunt who was always dead against going into one of these facilities that she is very comfortable there and has now changed her opinion. At a time when the standard of Aged Care has become a hot topic in society I can't think of any other nursing home that I would recommend more highly. Joseph

My Mother lives here, the care staff are lovely but untrained and there are not enough staff overall. I think there's one nurse on at night for over 100 residents and that's on three levels! If Mum gets ill in the night I assume she won't survive because one will be there to help her. It's disgusting how they keep cutting staff to line their pockets.

Staff are unmanaged, reducing Nurses to two over a three storey building, usual nursing standard are graduates with no experience, or nurses who are only at the Enrolled Nurse or Assistant In Nursing not the fully qualified Registered Nurse. The only life style options are games and a couple of activities for those with no dementia, there are no specific dementia activities this is tantamount to TV. Overall the staff are do not take much interest in the residents. The property is run down although new and in need of paint touch ups plant watering and refurbishment of seating. Reasonably clean although most peoples wheelchairs and walkers are filthy. Staff turn over very high we go through new nurses every few months, this makes it impossible to provide a safe nursing for over 100 residents when they barely get to no what is normal for each resident to then know when a problem may arise. Stay away from Portofino they will cut staff there once they get their numbers up. The Vacanti are not able to provide quality lifestyle or safe care because they recruit badly, manage worse and always look to reduce costs though staffing, the staff are paid very badly hence the high turn over and lack of experienced staff.

Not a safe environment for elderly people, poor training of staff
