It was great at the beginning however, with staff changes and the young assistants the care declined. Nurses need to care.

The staff are excellent and contact me if there have been any changes in my fathers condition. The facility is wonderful.

Staff are not interested. My famiy member has needed medical attention for injuries and infections (visible) that required hospital treatment, but until it was brought to the attention of management by visiting family members the 'nursing staff' had not noticed, or not treated the matters as worthy of their attention. In each case the signs were unmistakably clear for some days but unless a family member visited, saw the situation and requested medical attention, nothing was recorded or done.

high turn over of mangement and lack of compassion for such a costly facility.

I am simply amazed at the Holistic Care that was provided for my beloved Grandmother. Staff continually smiling and residents always happy and provided for adequately. Thank you so much.

Generally a good feel, however could have more 1:1 activities for residents.
