Montgomery is a care home with 30 single rooms with shared ensuites. Each room is approximately 16.5 sq. meters. Specialised care is provided for residents who have a diagnosis of dementia or cognitive impairment. There are a range of common areas, such as:

- Light filled dining and lounge areas with small dining tables and chairs for comfortable group dining. Areas can be opened up into an events or function space for occasions
- Secure outdoor gardens at both the front and back of the home

A central courtyard containing outdoor garden, chairs and a barbeque are used extensively for activities with residents, family or friend visits and staff. The backyard has a secure garden where residents' family, friends and staff can sit for socialisation and recreational activities. A visitors' lounge is available with comfortable couches and tables.
