My uncle lived here and all of a sudden could no longer walk or feed himself. Gets tucked away in his room and not fed. It took weeks for staff to start feeding him once he had stop being capable of doing such. We have very recently caught the staff forging information, stating they have fed my uncle, but have most certainly not done so. And of most concern is my uncle, who cannot move, has fallen out of his wheelchair and broken his spine. Not happy at all. If your family member cannot fend for themselves in some way, do not send them here.
