I had to put my friend into respite as I have to have major surgery. I was terrified at the thought of putting her into respite due to reports of bad nursing homes. After she stayed at Moran Roxburgh Park for one and a half months she loved it she loved the staff and activities and was quite sad on leaving. She always looked clean and well looked after when I was able to visit. I couldn't have asked for a better nursing home to look after her We will be back. Thanks to all the staff from Managers down to cleaning staff you are all fantastic.

My uncle been in this aged care for a while now. But we found out that they lift him incontinence while my aunty was in hospital. Where is the humanity dignity to care to elderly people. I called that elderly abuse as we know aged care should be always caring even though the elderly can be demanding at time. But that's why we rely on the aged care facilities to care elderly people. Not to be abuse.

Every time I go to see dad I feel like I've done the right thing he seems to be happy, the staff is friendly and they care ,life style is improving,the food doesn't look to bad,the building is standing and always clean.the one thing that i'am really amazed with is how all the staff know all the residents names that includes the laundry staff the kitchen staff and the office staff not only that they all know me and who I visit. There are five wings.The fifth star is for improvement because there is always room for improvement in all sectors.
