The facility is super clean, modern and bright. The staff are friendly and always helpful. Very happy with our choice of care for our father.

this facility is unsfae and the staff do not take responsibility for the care needs of the residents.

My mother in law has been in care for 3 years at Noble Gardens. The staff are very attentive and helpful, couldn't ask for better care for her

This facility seems nice and my family member is happy there. From what I have seen the food is good, the carers seem very attentive and the rooms are nice. They seem to have a lot of activities organised. There are quite a few sitting rooms and places for residents and guests to sit and watch tv, read or have a coffee. My family member has not been taken on any outings which would have been nice.
