My mum suffers from dementia, and has been at Sir James Terrace for 7 weeks. When she arrived there she was in a very confused and unhappy state, and now I'm absolutely thrilled to see her enjoying the cheerful attention from the staff, and the relaxed atmosphere there. With all the activities, outings, and interaction with staff and residents there, she has come a long way! I love their open-door policy, and they are never too busy to help or have a chat. I'm very impressed with this home, and rather enjoy visiting mum and saying hi to everyone there.

My mum was at Sir James Terrace at Deception Bay for 10 years. The staff were awesome. Food was good. In the end though she had a bad fall and another resident kept trying to attack her. We suspect he may have had something to do with fall. She passed away recently.
