secure memory house - lacks in staff numbers and quality - not enough fresh / healthy food options - not enough one-on-one interaction or appropriate lifestyle activities

Food mostly good but served far too early (dinner = 4.30-5pm) Lack of stimulating activities for residents to participate in. Staff caring but not always well trained.

Mum went from the villa to low care to high care, and I found that they had some lovely very caring staff, the rooms were nicely furnished with her own bathroom. The low care was like an apartment with lounge and small kitchen area with fridge, sink and microwave. Reception staff were very helpful
