My mother was in for high care (palliative). She received the most caring attention possible and was treated with great respect and love by every single staff member at all times. Support for family was respectfully present and we were kept totally informed all of the time. Even when it looked like she could not hear what was being said, staff spoke gently to her as if she could. Thankyou to all staff for your professional care.

Old and out dated. staff not friendly. Fees and costs very high. this agency are more interested in profits than the Elderly care. Avoid at all costs.
