The staff are very very patient and caring for my mum. She was such a fussy eater and a hard patient but they always have the time to make sure she enjoys her food and is always active and cared for. The environment is friendly and warm and my mum is so happy there.

The staff and management go the extra mile to take care of their residents. My aunty had her own room and loved the fact that home cooked meals were served with activities every day. But she was more happy that there was a chapel there and she was able to go to mass everyday. She was so comfortable and happy just to be there.
